The decoration in the Mikey's simply... New York. Posters hanging on the wall includes baseball, ice skating and basketball teams. There are also landscapes from all around the city hung in the restaurant. One interesting bit would be the waiting card, which uses city names instead of standard numbers.

The pizza here can be ordered in individual slices or the entire pie. For this round, we ordered the Classic New York Pizza and the Meatball Pizza. Both pizza slices were quite big, tastes good and had a unique flavour! It came with a big portion of toppings too. The preferred pizza this time around would definitely be the meatball pizza.

The sidelines here are good! Don't forget to make use of the upgrade option on the menu which will allow you to get a sideline and soft drink for a cheaper price. Brooklyn, which is a mixture of fries, cheese and BBQ sauce dip is one really nice dish! This would be the must try when you are here. The Buffalo Wings comes with celery, carrots and sour cream sauce. It's not too bad either.

Buffalo Wings!

All in all, the experience was an enjoyable one. Price is a little steep though. Getting a slice of pizza plus the upgrade will easily cost you close to RM27 per person. However, if you are really into pizzas, this wouldn't matter and is the place that you will want to be.
