We opened our doors for business in December of 1992. We have had a long time connection to Pizza in the neighborhood. "Co-owner" Santo Fazio was hired by Phil Hartman when he was about to open his first Two Boots, circa 1987, and with Phil he created the style of pizza that is now famous at Two Boots' all over the city. Andy Bellucci also worked and trained with us at Three of Cups for a couple of years before he opened Lombardi's on Spring Street.

As you can see we have been a part of some of the best pizza in NYC for quite some time.
